

Big Island Salvage

Salvage Request for Stricken Vessel

Name:

Registration number:

Disclaimer

Big Island Salvage will attend the vessel and proceed with the salvage at the discretion of the company director and vessel master with regards to the weather parameters and possible environmental impact.

Big Island Salvage will attempt to mitigate any further loss to the vessel and environmental impact however will not be liable for any further damages sustained that could be unforeseen to Big Island Salvage.

Spill booms will be placed around the vessel if required to mitigate any fuel oil spills and further environmental impact.

In freeing the stricken vessel Big Island Salvage will act with all care, however will not be responsible for any further damages occurring during the salvage as a result of the sea floor interface and possible damages that occurred at the time of the grounding.

Big Island Salvage will operate with all care and due diligence in assisting the vessel in to a lifting berth for recovery, however will not be responsible for any further damages that could occur to the salvaged vessel during this process. Big Island Salvage reserves the right to engage additional crew and divers should the vessel require stability assistance for towage.

Further to the above Big Island Salvage acknowledge that whilst all care will be taken the salvage crew will be operating on the information provided by the client as to the water tight integrity and stability of the vessel.

Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

CALL 0415 232 513
www.boatsalvageperth.com.au
info@boatsalvageperth.com.au

